

WHAT PART DOES THE PART OF FORTUNE PLAY IN YOUR LIFE?

BY STEPHANIE JOHNSON

Good fortune is welcome, is it not? Manifesting abundance, positive money mindsets and such like abound in today's society. And who would refuse to accept good fortune when it comes along?

Your birth chart can reflect your fortune in life through various indicators, and one of the key indicators is the Part of Fortune. The Part of Fortune is a sensitive point in your birth chart, one which shows where and how you can attract good fortune. It is an ancient component of your birth chart, calculated using the positions of the Sun, Moon, and Ascendant. This calculation varies depending on whether you were born during the day or at night, reflecting the dynamic relationship between these three key components of your identity. When you Sun and Moon are in harmony with your Ascendant, then you are in harmony and able to achieve true happiness. Therefore, the Part or Lot of Fortune, as it is sometimes called, symbolizes the areas of life where you likely experience success, well-being, and a sense of true joy. This point is unique for each individual, offering deeply personalized insights into your path to happiness.

The Part of Fortune is also linked to your ability to attract wealth, material comfort that can bring forth happiness. In this way, it is also linked with luck, where and how can you be lucky enough to attract monetary fortune.

So, you can explore the House and Sign placement of your Part of Fortune for the following reasons:

- Discover Your Joy: Learn which areas of life bring you the most happiness and satisfaction. The Part of Fortune points to the activities, relationships, and pursuits that align with your deepest sense of contentment.
- Personal Growth: Use the insights provided by the Part of Fortune to focus on activities and goals that align with your true nature, facilitating personal growth and a more fulfilled life.
- Enhanced Understanding: Gain a deeper understanding of how your Sun, Moon, and Ascendant work together to create opportunities for success. This can help you better navigate life's challenges and seize opportunities that lead to lasting joy.

Part of Fortune in the Houses:

1st House: Positivity is your middle name. You attract good luck through your personality. Some would say that you were born lucky.

2nd House: You are a natural manifester. As soon as you state out loud that you want or need something then it arrives.

3rd House: Connections with neighbours and siblings bring good fortune. The more that you communicate your wishes, the more that you are content.

4th House: Your family is your fortune. Family, home and property investments bring you abundance. Your private life is a source of joy.

5th House: Children are a source of joy. Good fortune comes to you through pleasure-seeking activities, and the arts. Your creativity sparks abundance.

6th House: Good habits foster good fortune. Your everyday life can be a source of joy as you take pleasure from the little things. Good health boosts your sense of purpose.

7th House: Partnerships can be prosperous. Rewards from personal and business contracts can be a source of abundance.

8th House: Joint resources and business boost your personal coffers. You experience good luck when it comes to investments, taxes and inheritances.

9th House: Travel and adventure are a source of joy, and assist you in attracting good fortune. Your overseas connections are rewarding.

10th House: Professional connections equal good fortune. You land on your feet when it comes to your career, attracting promotions, awards and abundance.

11th House: Good fortune comes to you via your friendships, and in any clubs or groups that you join. You are well supported in your personal hopes, dreams and wishes.

12th House: Your intuition helps you seek and find good fortune. Moments of solitude are a source of joy. Others also support your inner work. Donations come from near and far.

Part of Fortune in the Signs:

Aries: Action, authenticity and initiation spark joy. Good fortune comes through your own endeavours.

Taurus: Nature, mother earth, is a source of joy. You are well able to manifest abundance through your reliable and steady approach.

Gemini: Connection is your solace. You love to communicate and can attract good fortune through your spoken, written and ability to touch others.

Cancer: Nostalgia is a key component in your life. Your connections with loved ones, memories and shared stories are a source of joy, and bring good fortune.

Leo: Good fortune comes to you when you shine in you own right. Tapping into a sense of fun helps abundance flow in the right direction.

Virgo: A sense of duty brings its own rewards in your life. When you are of service to others then good fortune comes your way.

Libra: Establishing harmony in your life, and in the lives of loved ones, is a source of joy. Good fortune comes through beauty and the arts.

Scorpio: Truth sets you free and on the path to good fortune. Abundance comes when you honour your own true self, and help others on the same path.

Sagittarius: When life is an adventure then you excel and feel a sense of joy. You gain much through exploring new horizons.

Capricorn: Mastery is your joy. When you master a skill, or achieve a level of excellence in your field, then you are fortunate indeed.

Aquarius: Good fortune comes to you when you connect with like-minded people and have a sense of purpose. You appreciate diversity, and respect individuality.

Pisces: Your imagination is the key to abundance in your life. Your intuition helps you find good fortune, and your compassion attracts the support of others.

Ready to explore where your true joy lies? Check your Part of Fortune in our Astro Gold iOS app or the Astro Gold macOS and discover the celestial secrets to your happiness!

